

Mr. Abramson is born in Fort Worth, Texas to Samuel and Katherine Abramson.

Mr. Abramson receives a Bachelor of Business Administration from the University of Texas.

Mr. Abramson receives a Doctor of Jurisprudence from the University of Texas.

Mr. Abramson is admitted to practice in the state of Texas and becomes a partner at Wynne & Wynne in Dallas, Texas.

Mr. Abramson becomes an attorney for the Securities and Exchange Commission in Washington, D.C.

Mr. Abramson serves Of Counsel for Mobil Oil Corp. in New York, The Hague and London.

Mr. Abramson is admitted to practice in the state of New York.

Mr. Abramson serves as international general counsel for Merck & Co., Inc. in Rahway, New Jersey.

1937

1952

1954

1954

1961

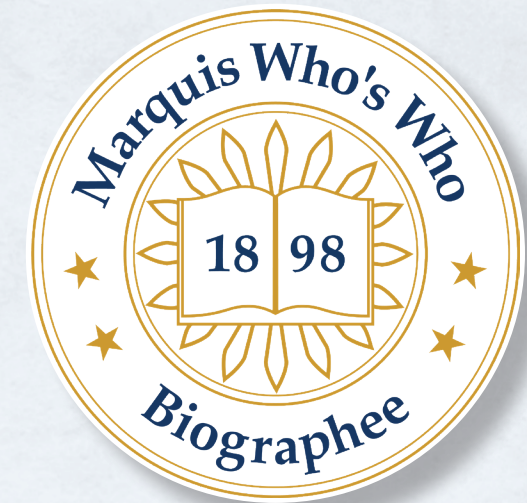

1962

1963

1970

CLARENCE A. ABRAMSON

Pharmaceutical Company Executive | Lawyer

A timeline of professional milestones

1972

1974

1986

1989

1991

1993

1994

1995

Mr. Abramson is admitted to practice in the state of New Jersey.

Mr. Abramson is admitted to practice in the state of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Abramson becomes associate general counsel for Merck & Co., Inc.

Mr. Abramson becomes secretary and chief counsel for Merck & Co., Inc.

Mr. Abramson becomes vice president and secretary for Merck & Co., Inc.

Mr. Abramson founds Poly Pharm Inc., where he serves as director.

Mr. Abramson is appointed president of Health Care Ventures International, Inc. in Scotch Plains, New Jersey.

Mr. Abramson co-founds Gulf Stream Pharms., LLC, where he serves as managing director.