

Ms. Anderson is born in San Diego, California to Lorenzo and Louise Anderson.

Ms. Anderson receives a Bachelor of Science from San Diego State University.

Ms. Anderson receives a Master of Library Science from Kansas State Teachers College.

Ms. Anderson works at a branch library of the Los Angeles Public Library.

Ms. Anderson works at the young adult library of the San Diego Public Library.

Ms. Anderson works at the library of the United States Army in Europe.

Ms. Anderson becomes a coordinator for the Serra Reference Project of the Serra Regional Library System in San Diego, California.

1933

1954

1955

1956

1959

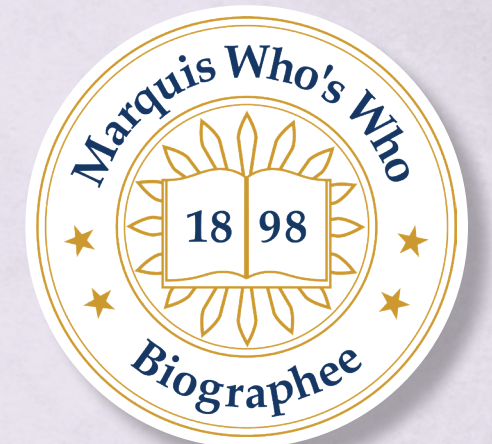

1964

1969

Barbara Louise Anderson

Retired Library Director

A timeline of professional milestones

1972

1974

1974

1976

1979

1984

1994

Ms. Anderson becomes head of reader services at the Riverside City and County Public Library.

Ms. Anderson serves as president of the California Society of Libraries.

Ms. Anderson becomes county librarian at San Bernardino County Library.

Ms. Anderson serves as president of the Riverside branch of the American Association of University Women.

Ms. Anderson serves as a delegate at the White House Conference on Libraries and Information Services.

Ms. Anderson serves as president of Congress Public Library Systems.

Ms. Anderson retires from her profession.