

ELIZABETH "BETH" ROULETTE BASELER

Clinical Services Director (Retired)

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/elizabeth-beth-baseler-15934227a/>

1956

Born in Hagerstown, MD, to parents Walter and Mary.

1978

Earns a bachelor's degree in biology from McDaniel College.

1978

Is head of clinical monitoring for the Research Program Directorate at the Frederick National Laboratory for Cancer Research until 2022.

1984

Earns a Master of Science in administration and management at Hood College.

2009

Co-authors an article on interleukin-2 therapy for patients with HIV, which appears in the New-England Journal of Medicine.

2012

Co-authors an article on the effects of inflammation and coagulation on South African patients with HIV.

2014

Sets up clinical trials and works with ministries of health in West Africa during the Ebola virus outbreak until 2016.

1956

1978

1978

1984

2009

2012

2014

2017

2017

2019

2020

2021

2023

2204

2017

Co-authors an article regarding Ebola vaccine trials in Liberia, which appears in the American Journal of Tropical Medicine and Hygiene.

2017

Marries Dr. Michael Baseler.

2019

Co-authors an article on Ebola therapeutics, which appears in the New England Journal of Medicine.

2020

Co-authors two articles on Remdesivir as a treatment option for COVID-19 patients, which appears in the New England Journal of Medicine.

2021

Co-authors an article on Remdesivir and Baricitinib as a treatment option for COVID-19 patients, which appears in the New England Journal of Medicine.

2023

Serves as senior clinical project manager for Manpower through today.

2024

Is a volunteer mentor for Woman to Woman Mentoring through today.

A Timeline of Professional Milestones