

Ms. Brassard is born in Harlingen, Texas to Gaston Paul Junior and Jewel Aline Jennet.

Ms. Brassard receives a Bachelor of Science in secondary education from the University of Texas.

Ms. Brassard becomes an English and language arts teacher for Silsbee Independent School District in Texas.

Ms. Brassard becomes an eighth grade teacher at Our Mother of Mercy Catholic School in Houston, Texas.

Ms. Brassard becomes a high school English teacher for the South Park/Beaumont Independent School District in Texas.

Ms. Brassard receives a Master of Education in supervision from Lamar University.

Ms. Brassard authors "High School Basic Curriculum."

1949

1971

1971

1972

1973

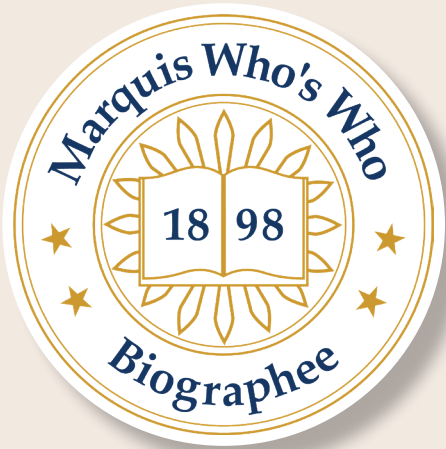

1975

1975

Janice A. Brassard

Owner | Instructor | Educational Consultant
Retired Secondary School Educator

A timeline of professional milestones

1980

1986

1996

1997

2005

2005

2007

Ms. Brassard is named Outstanding Teacher of the Year in the South Park Independent School District.

Ms. Brassard is named one of 10 Outstanding Teachers by Quality Education of Beaumont.

Ms. Brassard serves as a member of the Texas State School Improvement Initiative of the Texas Education Agency in Austin, Texas.

Ms. Brassard co-authors the 10th grade Gifted and Talented curriculum.

Ms. Brassard retires as an educator.

Ms. Brassard establishes Miz B's Tutorials and Education Consultant in Beaumont, Texas where she serves as an instructor.

Ms. Brassard becomes a fellow of the Center Reform of School Systems.