

WILLIAM C. CUSHMAN, MD

Medical Director | Professor

1948 Born to Townsend Hamilton Jr. and Virginia Marie (Benoit) Cushman in Lakehurst, NJ.		1974 Obtains a Doctor of Medicine from the University of Mississippi; Is a resident at the University of Mississippi School of Medicine until 1977.	professor of medicine at the University of	1978 Serves as chief of the hypertension section at the VA Medical Center in Jackson, MS until 1988.	Is ordained to the priesthood in the Antiochian Orthodox Christian Church.	1988 Serves as chief of the hypertension section at the VA Medical Center in Memphis, TN until 1997
1948	1970	1974	1977	1978	1987	1988
I988 Is an associate professor of medicine and preventative medicine at the University of Tennessee College of Medicine until 1994.	Is an associate professor of medicine and preventive medicine at the University of Tennessee College of Medicine until 1994.	and preventive medicine at the University of Tennes-at	1997 Serves as chief of the preventive medicine section the VA Medical Center in Memphis, TN until 2020.	Receives the Barnwell Award for outstanding achievement in clinical science from the Depart- ment of Veterans Affairs.	2018 Receives the Page-Brad- ley Lifetime Achievement Award from the American Heart Association's Council on Hypertension.	Serves as medical director of the Department of Preventive Medicine at the University of Tennessee Health Science Center through today.

A Timeline of Professional Milestones