MARQUIS W108W10°

RALPH B. D'AGOSTINO SR., PHD

Mathematician | Statistician | Educator | Consultant

1940 Born to Bennedel to D'Agostino and Carmela (Piemoni D'Agostino in Somerville, MA.	of Arts from Bostor	1964 Earns a Master of Arts from Boston University.	1965 Marries Lei Lanie Carta on August 28, later welcoming their son Ralph Jr. in 1966 and their daughter LeiLanie Maria in 1969.	• 1 1 0 / 1 1 0 / 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1	1968 Teaches mathematics and statistics at Boston University as an assistant, associate and full professor through the present day.	1975 Works for the FDA as a consultant, over-the counter drug committee chair and remains a Special Government Employee.	until 1990, having profiles serial mur- ders and published paper and bulletin on	1985 Is awarded the Metcalf Teaching Award for Excellence in Teaching at Boston University.
1940	1962	1964	1965	1968	1968	1975	1982	1985	1985
1986 Is the director of the Statistics Consultant	1988 Is named a director of the Biostatistics MA/PhD Program at	1990 Is made a fellow of the American Statistical Association, as	1993 Is a co-principal investigator of the Framingham Heart	1995 Is editor of the journal "Statistics in Medicine" until	2006 Is the chairman of the Department of Mathematics and	2007 Is a statistical consultant for the New England Journal of	2014 Is in the top one percent of most cited researchers in	2014 Receives the Achievement Award from the American	2018 Is the recipient of the Grant for Research of Cardiovascular

A Timeline of Professional Milestones