

PEGGY RAE DORRIS, PHD

Professor and Chair of Biology Department (Emeritus)

1933

Born to Hugh Baskerville and Alta Eugenia (Stamper) Dorris in Holly Bluff, MS.

1956

Earns a Bachelor of Science with distinction from Mississippi College.

1956

Teaches biology in public schools in Benton, MS.

1957

Teaches biology in public schools in Wilmot, AK.

1961

Teaches biology in public schools in Pontotoc, MS.

1962

Is a graduate assistant at the University of Mississippi through 1966.

1933

1956

1956

1957

1961

1962

1963

1966

1967

1967

1967

1968

1972

1963

Earns a Master of Science from the University of Mississippi.

1966

Teaches as a professor at Henderson State University through 1996.

1967

Earns a Doctor of Philosophy from the University of Mississippi.

1967

Is a member of the Arkansas Education Association and the American Association of University Women through 1978.

1967

Is a member of Delta Kappa Gamma through 1980.

1968

Is a member of the American Association of University Professors through 1978.

1972

Is a professor and chairman of the department of biology at Henderson State University through 1996.

A Timeline of Professional Milestones