

Ms. Faber is born in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania to Paul Mitchell and Sandra Kydd.

Ms. Faber receives a Bachelor of Arts from Mount Holyoke College.

Ms. Faber becomes a research associate at The Rockefeller University in New York City, New York.

Ms. Faber marries Edward T. Faber.

Ms. Faber studies postgraduate courses at Yale University, where she serves as a research associate.

Ms. Faber receives a Master of Arts from California State University, San Francisco.

Ms. Faber becomes partner at Madrone Associates in San Rafael, California.

1927

1949

1949

1953

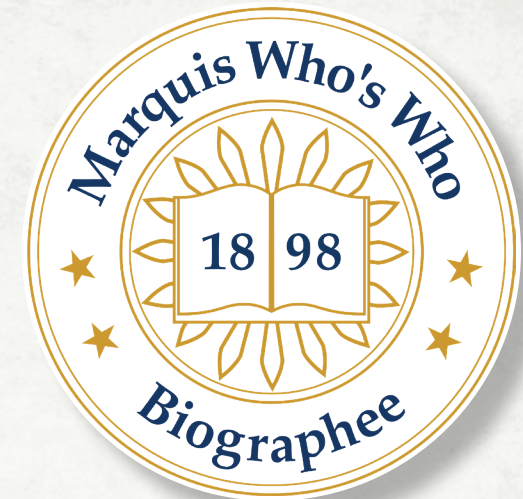

1967

1968

1971

PHYLLIS M. FABER

Biologist | Consultant

A timeline of professional milestones

1972

1982

1982

1983

1990

1993

1995

1997

Ms. Faber becomes an instructor at the College of Marin in Kentfield, California.

Ms. Faber authors "Common Wetlands Plants," which receives the AEP Award the following year.

Ms. Faber receives the Outstanding Environmental Document Award from the Association of Environmental Professionals.

Ms. Faber becomes an editor for the Fremontia California Native Plant Society in Sacramento, California.

Ms. Faber is named Environmentalist of the Year by the Marin Environmental Alliance.

Ms. Faber becomes a publisher and director of California Native Plant Society Press.

Ms. Faber is named to Marin County Women's Hall of Fame.

Ms. Faber serves as editor of California's Wild Gardens.