

GENE J. FITZPATRICK

Owner | Kinesiologist

1961

Begins working in the manufacturing industry at the age of eight.

1969

Begins a four-year course in tool-making at the Eli Whitney Vocational College; Designs and builds his first medical instrument.

1971

Completes the course in tool-making at Eli Whitney Vocational College in half the usual time due to prior experience.

1978

Begins his career as an application engineer for the Bridgeport Machine Tool Company.

1981

Is recognized as the third highest salesman in the country for the Bridgeport Machine Tool Company.

1986

Witnesses his wife physically progress from an illness using natural techniques.

1986

Becomes the owner and kinesiologist of Balanced Health LLC in Nashua, NH.

1988

Sets up the first quality control department for a company that produced equipment used to remove brain tumors.

1961

1969

1971

1978

1981

1986

1986

1988

1990

1992

1995

1997

1997

2008

2019

2020

1990

His employer passes away from the same illness as his wife after utilizing the medical route - the final catalyst to turn to an all-natural lifestyle.

1992

Conducts coursework through Touch For Health Kinesiology with Dr. Jennifer Weiss.

1995

Completes his first course in iridology with Dr. Jim Jenks and a course in natural health at the Certified Natural Health College.

1997

Becomes an instructor for the Touch For Health Kinesiology Association.

1997

Begins teaching muscle testing, body systems courses and Touch For Health Kinesiology courses one through four.

2008

Is inducted into the Presidential Who's Who.

2019

Is voted the Best in Natural Health Care in Nashua, NH and again in 2020.

2020

Is inducted into the Business Hall of Fame by the Nashua Awards Program.

A Timeline of Professional Milestones