

Mr. Handy is born in Portland, Oregon to Royal Sheppard and Eloise Handy.

Mr. Handy serves in the U.S. Navy for three years.

Mr. Handy receives a Bachelor of Science in history and political science from Portland State University.

Mr. Handy receives a Master of Arts in American diplomatic history from Portland State University.

Mr. Handy is appointed director of Continuing Education and Community Services at the College of the Mainland in Texas City, Texas.

Mr. Handy is appointed director of International Programs at the College of the Mainland.

1941

1959

1969

1971

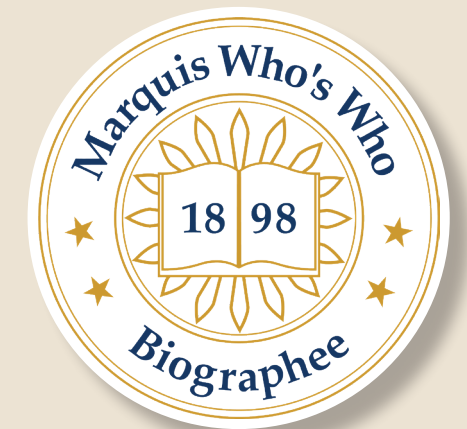

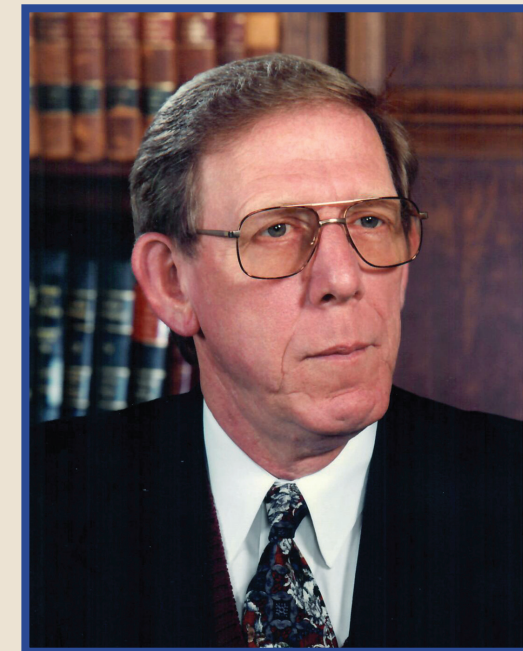

1972

1975

ROBERT T. HANDY

Financial Professional | Educator
Association Administrator

A timeline of professional milestones

1976

1984

1988

1992

1993

1999

Mr. Handy founds the Gulf Coast World Affairs Council, serving as executive director.

Mr. Handy becomes executive director of Houston the World Trade Association.

Mr. Handy serves as president of Development Resources International in Houston, Texas.

Mr. Handy becomes executive director of the Brazoria County Historical Museum in Angleton, Texas.

Mr. Handy is appointed chairman of the Stephen F. Austin Statewide Bicentennial Celebration Commission by Texas governor Ann Richards.

Mr. Handy becomes a financial advisor representative for ViaQuest Financial Group in Houston, Texas.