

Dr. Horne is born in Kansas City, Missouri to Corwin Denzel and Ella Mae Horne.

Dr. Horne becomes a National Scholar at Harvard University.

Dr. Horne receives a Bachelor of Arts from Harvard University.

Dr. Horne marries Clara Ann Horne.

Dr. Horne receives a Doctor of Philosophy from the University of Kansas.

Dr. Horne becomes an instructor and National Science Foundation postdoctoral fellow at Stanford University.

Dr. Horne becomes an instructor of chemistry at Stanford University.

Dr. Horne becomes an assistant professor at Michigan State University.

Dr. Horne is promoted to associate professor at Michigan State University.

1934

1952

1956

1959

1962

1962

1963

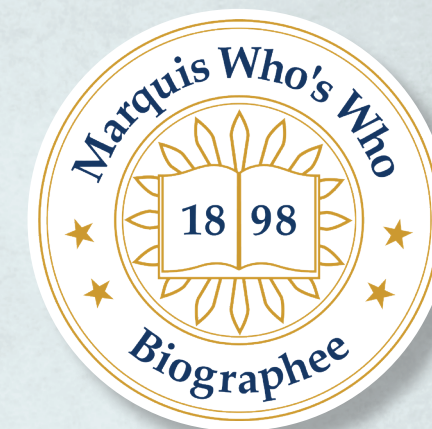

1964

1969

FREDERICK HERBERT HORNE

Dean Emeritus | Professor Emeritus

A timeline of professional milestones

1970

1973

1975

1975

1980

1980

1982

1986

2000

2018

Dr. Horne works at Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory on sabbatical leave.

Dr. Horne is promoted to full professor at Michigan State University.

Dr. Horne is appointed associate chairman of the Department of Chemistry at Michigan State University.

Dr. Horne works at Arya Mehr University in Tehran, Iran as an exchange professor.

Dr. Horne serves as interim manager for performing arts at Michigan State University.

Dr. Horne works at Odense University in Denmark on sabbatical leave.

Dr. Horne is appointed associate dean of the College of Natural Science at Michigan State University.

Dr. Horne is appointed Dean of Science at Oregon State University.

Dr. Horne becomes Dean Emeritus and Professor Emeritus at Oregon State University.

Dr. Horne receives the Lifetime Research Achievement Award from the Oregon State University College of Science.