

CLINTON J. MACHANN

English Educator

1947

Born in Bryan, Texas to J.W. and Sophie E. Machann.

1969

Receives a Bachelor of Arts from Texas A&M University.

1969

Becomes a teacher for public schools in Houston, Texas.

1971

Becomes a teaching assistant at the University of Texas.

1976

Receives a Doctor of Philosophy from the University of Texas.

1976

Becomes a professor of English at Texas A&M University.

1947

1969

1969

1971

1976

1976

1990

1994

1995

1998

1999

2000

2017

1990

Serves as a Fulbright lecturer at Charles University in Prague, Czech Republic.

1994

Authors "The Genre of Autobiography in Victorian Literature."

1995

Appointed chairman of the board of directors of the Czech Education Foundation of Texas.

1998

Authors "Matthew Arnold: A Literary Life."

1999

Serves as editor of "Czech-Americans in Transition."

2000

Serves as editor of "Kosmas: Czechoslovak and Central European Journal."

2017

Becomes Emeritus Professor of English.

A Timeline of Professional Milestones