

ALLAN L. MATTERN

Cardiologist

1935

Born on October 19 in Rochester, MN.

1957

Earns a Bachelor of Arts from Macalester College.

1961

Serves in the U.S. Navy for 32 years as a medical officer and internist and in 1985 as a captain and commanding officer of the Naval Reserve Surgical Team.

1962

Obtains a Doctor of Medicine from the Yale School of Medicine.

1963

Is an intern in internal medicine at the University of Utah.

1967

Is a resident in internal medicine at the Naval Hospital Philadelphia.

1935

1957

1961

1962

1963

1967

1971

1972

1973

1975

1980

1988

2021

1971

Is a fellow in cardiovascular disease at the Naval Medical Center in Bethesda, MD.

1972

Is assistant chief of cardiology, director of the coronary care unit and director of the cardiac catheterization labs at the Naval Hospital in San Diego, CA.

1973

Is a consultant with Tri-City Medical Center in Oceanside, CA until 1980.

1975

Serves in the U.S. Naval Reserves, with various assignments in the San Diego area.

1980

Is an interventional cardiologist at Wyoming Cardiopulmonary Services in Casper, WY until 1988.

1988

Works at Cardiology Associates in Reno, NV until 1989.

2021

Commences his retirement.

A Timeline of Professional Milestones