

PHILIP L. MILLER

Retired Associate Superintendent

1969

Works as an electrician.

1976

Works for Industrial Electricity and James Humphrey VoTech.

1979

Is named the State Vocational Teacher of the Year.

1986

Serves as the regional director for adult education within the Regional Education Service Agency.

1996

Serves as the director of adult and community education for Berkeley County schools in West Virginia.

1996

1976

1979

1986

1996

2008

2010

2010

2010

2020

2008

Works as the associate superintendent of Berkeley County schools in West Virginia.

2010

Establishes programs with his assistant for teachers to create high-quality education programs.

2010

Retires from his profession.

2020

Maintains lifetime membership with the Berkeley County Retired Employees Association.

2020

Maintains membership with the Adult Education Association.

A Timeline of Professional Milestones