

NICHOLAS PLATT

Consultant | Ambassador (Retired) | President Emeritus

| Born in New York, New York to Geoffrey and Helen Choate Platt. | 1957 Graduates cum laude from Harvard University, receiving a Bachelor of Arts. | Receives a Master of Arts from Johns Hopkins University School of Advanced International Studies. | 1959 Commissioned as a Foreign Service officer for the U.S. Department of State. | Becomes a Chinese language trainee at the Foreign Service Institute. | Becomes a political officer and consulate general at the United States Consulate in Hong Kong. | 1969 Serves as chief of the Asian Communist Areas Division of the Bureau of Intelligence & Research for the U.S. Department of State. | of Executive | 1972 Appointed director of staff of Executive Secretariat Staff. | 1973 Serves as chief of the Political Section of the United States Liaison Office in Peking, China. |
|--|---|---|--|--|--|---|--------------|--|---|
| 1936 | 1957 | 1959 | 1959 | 1962 | 1964 | 1969 | 1971 | 1972 | 1973 |
| 1974 | 1977 | 1978 | 1980 | 1982 | 1985 | 1987 | 1991 | 1992 | 2004 |

A Timeline of Professional Milestones