

THOMAS L. PRESTON

Founder | Chief Executive Officer

1934

Born to Thomas J. Preston and Mary Lyter Preston in Carrollton, KY.

1954

Serves as an officer on active duty and active reserve in the U.S. Army until 1963.

1956

Earns a Bachelor of Arts in journalism from the University of Kentucky.

1956

Works as the youngest professional newspaper editor in Kentucky for nine months.

1958

Conducts special studies at the University of Washington Graduate School of Communications.

1934

1954

1956

1956

1958

1968

2008

2009

2021

2021

1968

Is the founder and chief executive officer of Preston Global through today.

2008

Is executive director for Kentucky's Office of Homeland Security.

2009

Is invited to participate in the U.S. Army War College's National Security Program.

2021

Is inducted into the University of Kentucky Hall of Distinguished Alumni.

2021

His firm is renamed ForeseeNow, a Preston Global Extension.

A Timeline of Professional Milestones