

Mr. Robinson is born in Lake Arthur, Louisiana to James Sidney and Vernita Robinson.

Mr. Robinson becomes a maintenance superintendent in the U.S. Air Force.

Mr. Robinson receives a Master of Public Administration in human resources management from Golden Gate University in San Francisco, California.

Mr. Robinson becomes a supervising caseworker at St. John's School in Whitewater, California.

1947

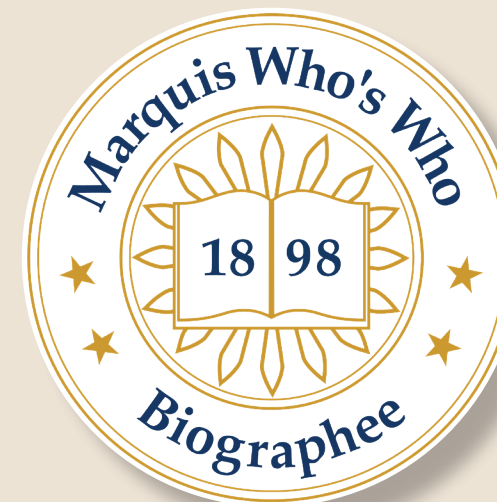

1965

1985

1985

JAMES S. ROBINSON

Public Health Service Officer

A timeline of professional milestones

1986

1996

1998

2001

2003

Mr. Robinson becomes a supervising officer at the San Bernardino County Probation Department in San Bernardino, California.

Mr. Robinson is appointed director of the Student Assistant Program at San Bernardino Valley College.

Mr. Robinson is appointed chair and becomes a grievance representative for the California Association for Alcohol/Drug Educators.

Mr. Robinson is appointed department head at the San Bernardino County Probation Department.

Mr. Robinson becomes certified in addiction treatment through the California Association for Alcohol/Drug Educators.