

CAPTAIN RUSSELL K. SCHULZ

Military Officer (Retired)

1933

Born to Albert George and Lily Emma Schulz in Milwaukee, WI.

1956

Earns a Bachelor of Science with a certificate in teaching from the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater.

1956

Teaches physics and chemistry at Lake Mills High School in Wisconsin until 1957.

1957

Marries Marilyn Ruth Monn on June 8.

1964

Is named Flight Instructor of the Year by the U.S. Navy.

1973

Is a commanding officer of Patrol Squadron 17 in Honolulu, HI until 1975.

1979

Achieves a Master of Science from Central Michigan State University.

1981

Is a commanding officer at the Naval Air Station in Willow Grove, PA until 1983.

1933

1956

1956

1957

1964

1973

1979

1981

1984

1986

1987

1994

1997

2000

2004

2004

1984

Is a commanding officer at the Naval Base in Philadelphia, PA until 1985.

1986

Is a commanding officer of ROTC at the University of Pennsylvania until 1987.

1987

Serves as vice president of the Delaware Valley College in Doylestown, PA until 1994.

1994

Serves as executive vice president of the Freedom Foundation in Valley Forge, PA until 2014.

1997

Is president of his local Rotary Club through 1998.

2000

Is president of the Navy League Philadelphia Council through 2002.

2004

Receives a Silver Patrick Henry Medallion for Patriotic Achievement from the Military Order of World Wars.

2004

Receives a Distinguished Alumni Award from the University of Wisconsin.

A Timeline of Professional Milestones