

SHARA SAND, PSYD

Psychologist

1983

Earns a Bachelor of Music in trombone from Manhattan School of Music in New York, NY.

1985

Earns a Master of Arts in trombone performance from Brooklyn Conservatory of Music in Brooklyn, NY.

1988

Worked as a faculty member of Yeshiva University in New York, NY, through 2008.

1990

Earns a Master of Arts in psychology from the Ferkauf Graduate School of Psychology at Yeshiva University.

1993

Earns a Doctor of Psychology in clinical psychology from the Ferkauf Graduate School of Psychology at Yeshiva University.

1994

Is the assistant director of clinical training at the Ferkauf Graduate School of Psychology and continues in this role.

1995

Privately practices psychology in New York, NY, and continues to do so.

1983

1985

1988

1990

1993

1994

1995

2005

2008

2010

2011

2012

2018

2019

2005

Works as an adjunct clinical supervisor within the Counseling Center at Pace University in New York, NY, through 2008.

2008

Teaches as an associate professor of psychology at LaGuardia Community College in Long Island City, NY, and continues to do so.

2010

Serves as president of the Division of Social Issues within the New York State Psychological Association through 2011.

2011

Co-chairs of the committee on sexualities and gender identities within the American Psychological Association and continues to do so.

2012

Serves as director of counseling services at Manhattan School of Music in New York, NY, and continues to do so.

2018

Is honored by the Forensic Division of the New York State Psychological Association.

2019

Receives the Diversity Award from the American Psychological Association.

A Timeline of Professional Milestones