

WILLIAM JOSEPH SHOEMAKER

Professor Emeritus

1941

Born to William McCune Shoemaker and Clementine Shoemaker in Boston, MA.

1964

Earns a Bachelor of Arts in zoology from the University of Massachusetts, Amherst.

1971

Obtains a Doctor of Philosophy in biochemistry and metabolism from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

1972

Serves as associate section chief of the National Institute of Mental Health until 1976.

1976

Is a senior scientist at the Salk Institute in La Jolla, CA until 1984.

1941

1964

1971

1972

1976

1985

1987

2018

2021

2021

2021

1985

Is a professor at the University of Connecticut Health Center until 2018.

1987

Is a member of the leadership group with the Unitarian Society of Hartford.

2018

Attains professor emeritus status from the University of Connecticut Health Center.

2021

Continues to work as a consultant to research programs at numerous institutions.

2021

Continues to enjoy bicycling and cribbage.

2021

Is currently working on a book about “the origin of evil and the social brain network,” dealing with the brain lesion in psychopaths.

A Timeline of Professional Milestones