

Ms. Smith is born in Washington, D.C. to Philip Franklin and Emelyn Fiske Smith.

Ms. Smith receives an Associate of Science from Penn Hall College.

Ms. Smith becomes a hematology technician at Duke University Medical Center in Durham, North Carolina.

Ms. Smith serves as a representative on the employee's council of Duke University Medical Center.

Ms. Smith becomes a hematology technician at North Arundel Hospital in Glen Burnie, Maryland.

1945

1965

1966

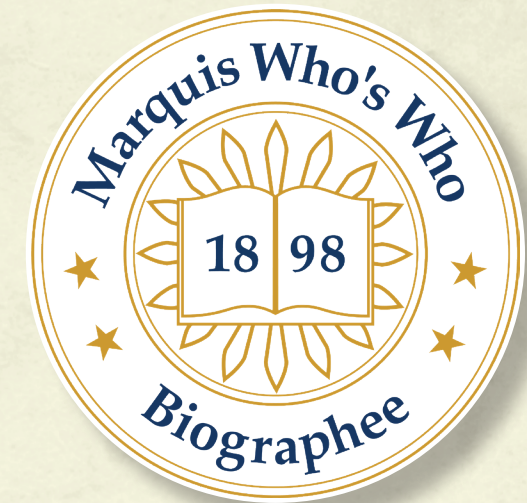

1968

1972

SHEILA ROBERTSON SMITH

Retired Hematology Technician

A timeline of professional milestones

1973

1997

1997

2007

2007

Ms. Smith becomes a hematology technician at Anne Arundel Medical Center in Annapolis, Maryland.

Ms. Smith joins the board of directors of the Society for the Restoration of Port Tobacco.

Ms. Smith joins the board of directors of the Smallwood Foundation in LaPlata, Maryland.

Ms. Smith receives the Charles County Historic Trust Preservation Award.

Ms. Smith receives the Mrs. Frank J. Fletcher Award from the Charles County Garden Club.