

Ms. Spore-Alhadeef is born in Boston, Massachusetts to Lawrence D. and Lillian M. Spore.

Ms. Spore-Alhadeef receives a Bachelor of Science from Boston College.

Ms. Spore-Alhadeef receives a Master of Library Science from Peabody College.

Ms. Spore-Alhadeef becomes assistant director of libraries at Boston College.

Ms. Spore-Alhadeef becomes a librarian at the Weston College School of Theology in Cambridge, Massachusetts.

Ms. Spore-Alhadeef becomes a member of the American Theological Library Association in Chicago, Illinois.

1943

1965

1966

1966

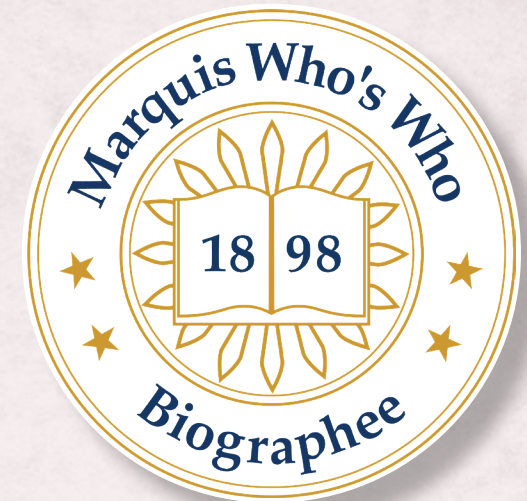

1968

1969

MARY K. SPORE-ALHADEEF

Librarian

A timeline of professional milestones

1973

1976

1978

2006

2018

2019

Ms. Spore-Alhadeef becomes a librarian at St. Patrick's Seminary in Menlo Park, California.

Ms. Spore-Alfadedef becomes a reference librarian at the Graduate Theological Union Library in Berkeley, California.

Ms. Spore-Alhadeef becomes an audio visual librarian at Redwood City Public Library.

Ms. Spore-Alhadeef becomes a general reference, local history, and archives librarian in Redwood City Public Library.

Ms. Spore-Alhadeef is interviewed on Korean television.

Ms. Spore-Alhadeef retires as a librarian.